Deals - 02/11/2022

A cross-jurisdictional team from Ogier has advised long-standing client Partners Capital on the redomiciliation of a US$3.2 billion Cayman fund to Luxembourg.

The redomiciliation involved a collaboration between Ogier's funds teams in Luxembourg and the Cayman Islands with support from the firm's financing teams. Partner Nicholas Plowman and counsel Richard Bennett provided Cayman Islands counsel and partner Benoit Rose and associate Pierre Andriuzzi provided Luxembourg legal expertise.

"We're delighted to have been able to offer Partners Capital both Cayman Islands and Luxembourg legal advice, and act as lead counsel on the redomiciliation of this fund. Our collaborative approach meant we were able to provide our client with a fully integrated service across jurisdictions," said Benoit Rose.

Richard Bennett added: "This successful redomiciliation demonstrates the synergies between the Cayman Islands and Luxembourg when it comes to building and reshaping business strategies for US managers with a growing European footprint. By working as a single team across our offices on this transaction we have been able to provide a smooth and consistent experience for the client."
