

Ogier backs Kiwanis Key Leaders programme for the fourth year

News - 12/09/2019

Ogier has continued its support of the Kiwanis Key Leaders programme for the fourth year running, enabling them to open up the life and leadership skills training to more people in Cayman.

The Kiwanis Club of Grand Cayman has been delivering the Key Leader programme since 2007, the programme is an opportunity for teenagers ages 14-18 to learn the five principles of service leadership: personal integrity, personal growth, respect for yourself and others, building community and the pursuit of excellence.

Programme coordinator Kadi Pentney said:

"We are so grateful to Ogier for their continued support as the main sponsor of Key Leader. Thanks to Ogier's commitment to the youth of Cayman, everyone in this age group has the opportunity to attend this highly rated early leadership development program.

It's so encouraging to see a law firm give so much back to the Cayman Islands community and care about the future leaders of our country! "

Ogier partner Rachael Reynolds said:

"We are proud to once again sponsor the Kiwanis Key Leader programme – investing in the leaders of tomorrow is vitally important and the skills the students learn are invaluable. We hope that the programme continues to go from strength to strength."

This year the Kiwanis Key Leader programme will take place 13-15 September 2019.
