

How Jersey has remained a beacon of stability amid the pandemic

Insights - 09/11/2021

No one can predict the future. In a crisis, even the best informed, from global managers to heads of state, are left scrambling to catch up. We just have to try to adapt as events unfold, and to prepare for normality when it returns.

But some institutions and jurisdictions manage this better than others - and Jersey was better prepared than many when COVID-19 hit.

In this article, published by Jersey Finance and STEP, Ogier partner Steve Meiklejohn shares his insights alongside Henry Baye (Standard Chartered Bank Jersey), Jill Britton (Jersey Financial Services Commission), Amy Bryant (Jersey Finance), Tom Cowsill (PwC Channel Islands), and James de Vulle (PwC Channel Islands).

About Ogier

Ogier is a professional services firm with the knowledge and expertise to handle the most demanding and complex transactions and provide expert, efficient and cost-effective services to all our clients. We regularly win awards for the quality of our client service, our work and our people.

Disclaimer

This client briefing has been prepared for clients and professional associates of Ogier. The information and expressions of opinion which it contains are not intended to be a comprehensive study or to provide legal advice and should not be treated as a substitute for specific advice concerning individual situations.

Regulatory information can be found under Legal Notice

Meet the Author

Steve Meiklejohn

Partner

Jersey

E: steve.meiklejohn@ogier.com

T: +44 1534 514462

Related Services

Tax

Banking and Finance

Corporate

Regulatory

Legal