In this update from the Sustainable Investment (SI) Consulting team, our experts explore some of the key challenges and questions facing clients as they look to comply with and navigate the growing swell of ESG regulations across the EU, UK and US.

Head of SI Consulting Leonie Kelly explains the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) proposed new rules for funds which aim to promote clarity and transparency for the US market. As the market starts to build capacity and becomes more fluent in new transparency rules, senior manager Kasia Zatorska looks at how APAC asset managers can move beyond regulation to implementation. Also, senior manager Dasha Kuts discusses some of the big issues in conservation finance, following a panel event organised by Ogier for Guernsey's Sustainable Finance Week.
