

The Luxembourg Private Equity specialist François Pfister is attending the LPEA Insight PE Conference on Tuesday 19 March 2019.

The third edition of LPEA's Insights themed "Private Equity 3.0" will explore what the future holds for private equity as an asset class, including the rise of ESG and the advent of the digital era, which affects the entire investment value chain, in a series of conversations led by top notch investors.

With a unique global footprint that includes the four leading centres for private equity including Luxembourg, Ogier provides a full spectrum of services to private equity houses and their advisers and intermediary law firms, as well as private equity, real estate and mezzanine managers.
