

Ogier is a sponsor of the IBA 20th Annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds, which will take place 10-12 March at the InterContinental Park Lane, London. Topics at the two-day conference will include updates on Brexit, marketing funds into the EU and UK-EU structuring, key trends in private equity and hedge funds and current trends in litigation and regulatory actions.

The leading annual funds industry event will bring together legal, business and fund professional from around the globe to analyse the current market and future of private investments funds.

The conference will be attended by partner Nick Rogers from Ogier's Cayman office, partners Craig Cordle and Tim Clipstone from Ogier's Guernsey office, partners Emily Haithwaite and Piers Dryden from our Jersey office and partners Francois Pfister and Anne-Gaelle Delabye from Ogier's Luxembourg office.

To find out more about the event click here, or if you would like to arrange a meeting at the conference with one of our team members please contact them directly.