

François Pfister is attending the Horizon conference on 4 April 2019 in Luxembourg.

The event is tailored to offer attendees innovative and cutting-edge insight into current concerns and opportunities within the context of the evolving financial industry landscape. The Horizon Conference highlights critical and decisive subjects and their effect on the market.

We look forward to meeting the other attendees there.