

Ogier Partner Joanne Huckle is speaking at Variant Perspectives: Women in Value Investing conference on 3 May 2019 Omaha, Nebraska and will be discussing 'Making the dream a reality: Pointers from those who jump start and empower the journey' - A unique opportunity to learn and question what these women attribute their success to, what they wish they had done differently, what they would do if they were starting today and how they keep challenging themselves to grow as professionals.

There will be over 100 attendees at the conference, with 16 speakers discussing various topics relating to greater diversity in the asset management industry.

If you would like to arrange a meeting with Joanne at the conference, please get in touch. To find out more about the conference, please click here.