

Partner Marcus Leese is speaking on Multiple wills - how do we deal with them? at the STEP Asia Conference being held at Marina Bay Sands in Singapore on the 5 and 6 November.

Evolving legislation, stricter regulatory demands, information transparency and tax compliance continue to hit the headlines with the latest being the economic substance test. The same-old, tried and tested, can no longer be relied upon for the future. In this annual Asia conference, we will deep dive into the changing macro landscape and its significance to high net worth families and trust and estate practitioners.

Get in touch with Marcus if you would like to arrange a meeting.