

Associate Cornelia Zhu is attending the 2019 Cayman Investment Forum at The Ritz-Carlton Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands.

CFA Society Cayman Islands is pleased to announce its flagship event, the 7th Annual Cayman Investment Forum. Join us as we discover what role, in today's data-driven world, the human brain still plays in financial decision making. We'll explore the ethical implications, opportunities for profit, and psychology behind optimal investment decision making in the 21st century.

This half-day educational event features prominent international speakers sharing their thoughts and expertise, and is appropriate for both financial professionals and investors alike.

Get in touch with Cornelia if you would like to arrange a meeting.
