

Ogier is a proud sponsor of the Trusts in Litigation conference.

The agenda will cover Trust litigation as well as taking a wider view of where trusts interact with other areas, such as civil fraud, insolvency, real estate and matrimonial work. This will allow attendees to mix with both trust litigators and a range of different other specialists.

Global Head of Dispute Resolution, Rachael Reynolds serves as co-chair for the conference. Other Ogier attendees include partners Oliver Passmore and Nic Journeaux, Counsel Damian Evans and Managing Associate Sam Dingle. Please get in touch if you would like to arrange a meeting.

View the full conference agenda here.