

Private Equity International will host the 2020 CFOs & COOs forum in New York. The event brings together over 600 C-suite executives from the private equity and venture capital community to discuss strategies and enhancements to operational efficiency.

Ogier partner Joanne Huckle will be in attendance. Joanne has extensive experience advising private equity sponsors on the launch of Cayman Islands fund structures, she also regularly advises LPs on opportunities to invest in Cayman Islands fund. Joanne is an expert in the funds regulatory space and has become 'go to counsel' for sponsors, investors and service providers looking to ensure regulatory compliance in an ever-evolving regulatory environment.

If you would like to connect to arrange a meeting, please reach out to Joanne directly via the contact details provided here.