

INSOL Cayman, in association with RISA Cayman and South Square, will be hosting a series of one-hour webinars over the course of four days.

Managing Associate Gemma Lardner will join a special, interactive debate panel on Day Two tackling the controversial issue "This House Believes: COVID-19 is not the most significant development of 2020".

Ogier partners Marc Kish and William Jones, along with Associate Oliver Green will also be in attendance.

Please feel free to connect with any member of the team attending via their contact details provided here.