

Offshore Restructuring and Recovery 2020 – A Review of Recent Experiences

Events - 01/01/0001

Changes in the global economic outlook are causing direct and indirect stakeholders in offshore vehicles to assess the tools available under BVI and Cayman Islands law to facilitate cross-border restructurings, often in the absence of local legislation designed to facilitate the recognition of foreign office holders.

Ogier partners Marc Kish and Brian Lacy will join a webinar presented by Lexology to discuss the idiosyncrasies of their respective jurisdictions and the most helpful developments in the law over the past 12 months.

The discussion will include:

- A review of domestic and cross border procedures
- The courts' developing role
- Legislative developments

Lexology delivers the most comprehensive source of international legal updates, analysis and insights. To register for this webinar, please visit the link here.

Please don't hesitate to connect with Marc and Brian to discuss your Restructuring and Corporate Recovery matters.
