

For this BPP webinar Catherine Moore will be giving an overview of the types of trusts used in Guernsey, covering:

- The possibilities – the types of trust which are permissible under Guernsey law and those which are often seen
- The reasoning – common reasons why Guernsey trusts are used and why particular types of trust are used
- The features – some of the interesting features of Guernsey trusts

For further information please click here.