

Global Senior Partner Rachael Reynolds will join a panel during the Due Diligence Insights Virtual Conference.

The event is focused on the concerns of institutional allocators, public and private pensions, endowments, foundations, sovereign wealth funds, family offices, fund of funds and will cover evolving trends on alternative asset classes and global investment best practices.

Rachael's session will be an "on demand" session covering Fund Liquidations.

The conference will also include perspectives on the alternative fund sector with a focus on operational due diligence, compliance, valuation, governance, ESG, cyber security and fund operations. The conference will cover global topics that speak to the needs of CCOs, COOs, CFOs, operational due diligence professionals and CTOs.

For more details visit the event website here.