

Once again centered on sustainable finance, with a particular focus on the development of SDG-aligned investments, the FARAD Finance Forum distinguishes as a unique opportunity to get to know the major regulatory updates, legal framework and best practices examples from Luxembourg and European top players in the areas of banking, investment funds, asset management and insurance.

Benoit Rose is attending the event, if you would like to connect with him, please do via the details provided on the right.