

Ogier is delighted to sponsor "Pirates at the Maritime Museum" this February half term.

The pirates will return to the Maritime Museum for five days of swashbuckling, action-packed, family entertainment with Jersey Heritage from 21 - 25 February.

There will be two sessions each day, running from 10am-12:30pm and 1:30pm-4pm. As part of these, visitors will have the chance to meet the pirates, learn about life on board a ship and take part in various activities.

Entry is free for Jersey Heritage members and children under six. The normal entry fee applies for non-members. There are limited places so booking is recommended.
