

Ogier Leman is proud to be sponsoring the inaugural Dublin International Disputes Week (DIDW2022) - the new forum for international practitioners and general counsel providing access to thought leaders and prominent international practitioners specialising in litigating complex, crossborder disputes.

DIDW2022 gets underway on Monday 13 June with the Ogier Leman Satellite event (13.30-14.30) - a panel discussion on International Mediation chaired by former High Court and Court of Appeal Judge, Mr. Justice Michael Peart.

- Introductory remarks - Larry Fenelon SC, Ogier Leman
- Panellists - Ronan McGoldrick (Ogier Leman), Jennifer Fox (Ogier Cayman Islands) and Janine Alexander (Collyer Bristow LLP)

We will be inviting attendees to join this hybrid event either in person at The Morrison Hotel, Ormand Quay, Dublin or remotely (see link below).

We are looking forward to a world class line up of speakers and visitors at the main conference on Tuesday 14th and Wednesday 15th June - Stephen O'Connor, Elaine White, Maria Edgeworth and Morgan Crowe from Ogier Leman will also be attending the conference along with James Angus (Ogier, Jersey), Nick Taitz (Ogier, Guernsey), Ronan McGoldrick and Jennifer Fox.

Members of the team will also be attending the Opening Drinks Reception at Dublin City Hall on Monday 13 June and the Gala Dinner event at Kings Hall on Tuesday 14 June. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you would like to arrange a meeting either at the main conference or at one of these side events.

To register for the Ogier Leman satellite event please go here.