

Regulatory changes and shifting business practices are increasing the risk of litigation for the financial services sector. TL4 Disputes will host the Financial Institutions Litigation Conference featuring experts taking on topics ranging from macro legal trends to technical case law developments.

Ogier Partner Jeremy Snead will be attending.

If you would like to connect with Jeremy, please do so via the contact details provided on the right.