

The International Bar Association (IBA) Annual Conference is the leading conference for legal professionals worldwide to meet, share knowledge, build contacts and develop business. This year's conference will feature over 200 sessions, with lawyers from over 130 jurisdictions in attendance.

Ogier Non Executive Director Christina Blacklaws and Partner Matt Guthrie will be presenting at the following sessions:

31 October - Stay on: strategies to break the trend of female talents leaving their law firms

1 November - What's all this I hear about sand boxes? Regulatory innovation and access to justice

2 November - BIC Bar Leaders' Forum

2 November - Trusted jurisdictions – clash of the titans: a comparative primer of what to consider when forming your trust and where to form it

Partners Jennifer Fox, Bradley Kruger and Christopher Levers will also be attending.

If you would like to connect with the team in Miami, please reach out via the contact details provided on the right.