

Katie Baxter will be delivering a webinar for The School of International Financial Services as part of their 2022 funds CPD webinar series. Katie will present on 'Regulatory consideration for funds investing in cannabis in the Channel Islands' and will cover the following points:

- The 'growing market' – how cannabis related investments are booming
- The general starting point for financial institutions - investors beware
- Key legislation in Jersey - regulation and order
- The two stage test
- Practical considerations for funds

Please click here to register for the webinar.