

Partner Jeremy Snead will be attending the 6th edition of the Turnaround, Restructuring and Insolvency (TRI) Conference on 8 December in London.

The conference aims to bring together turnaround specialists with private equity funds, M&A advisors, insolvency practitioners, lawyers and lenders to share practical lessons from real-life business rescue case studies.

If you would like to connect with Jeremy please get in contact via his details on the right.