

Ogier acts for Agility Health Inc in its public offering of voting common shares

News - 30/06/2015

Ogier acted for Agility Health, Inc., a leading provider of physical rehabilitation and software services that benefit patients, healthcare providers and employers, in connection with its public offering of voting common shares, raising gross proceeds of $2,681,109 on June 30, 2015. The net proceeds of the offering will be used to fund general working capital purposes. The voting common shares were distributed under a prospectus supplement dated June 24, 2015 to a short form base prospectus dated May 29, 2015.

Agility Health is a Cayman Islands exempted company based in Grand Rapids, Michigan, U.S.A. Its voting common shares are listed on the TSX Venture Exchange.

The attorneys representing Ogier on the transaction were Bradley Kruger and Justin Savage. "It was heartening to see this deal close despite turmoil in the global equity markets resulting from the financial crisis in Greece," said Mr. Kruger.
