News - 06/01/2021

A joint Ogier team across the firm's Jersey, Guernsey and BVI (in Europe) offices has advised a longstanding major investment bank client on its arrangement of the first ever Sterling green bond issuance by a UK REIT, valued at £250 million.

Ogier's team has extensive experience advising across the spectrum of legal services in relation to transactions involving REITs, with specialists working across the firm's service lines and global locations.

Ogier Head of Banking and Finance in Europe, Katrina Edge, said: "We were pleased to work alongside our longstanding client in relation to this significant bond issuance. The deal demonstrates Ogier's ability to provide an integrated, cross-jurisdictional offering to clients and has a clear alignment with Ogier's ESG expertise".

Katrina Edge, James Lydeard and Nic Le Breuille advised on Jersey law, Christopher Jones and Michaela Jesson on Guernsey law and Simon Dinning, Oliver Richardson and William Costa on BVI law.
