

Supporting Asia-based businesses throughout the corporate lifecycle

From pre-IPO planning and structuring through to listing and ongoing compliance, Ogier provides coordinated legal, corporate administration and governance services to help Asia-based businesses establish, grow and operate in international markets.

With market-leading experience advising on Cayman Islands and BVI holding structures, our team supports IPOs, SPACs, pre-IPO investments and cross-border transactions across the world's major exchanges.

Through our offices in Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Tokyo and Singapore - and backed by our global network across time zones - we provide clients with a single, coordinated service throughout the corporate lifecycle.

Legal expertise for strategic transactions

We act for leading global financial institutions, investment managers and corporate entities and our lawyers are also instructed by leading law firms and intermediaries.

- IPOs on leading international stock exchanges
- Pre-IPO investments and restructurings
- SPAC and de-SPAC transactions
- M&A and disposals
- Joint ventures and cross-border investments
- Corporate reorganisations and redomiciliations

Structuring for growth and investment

We help clients establish and maintain the structures required to access international capital markets.

- Cayman and BVI holding companies
- Group restructurings
- Corporate approvals and governance
- Statutory registers and corporate records
- Shareholder and board support
- Coordination with sponsors, advisers and counsel
