

Job Description

Job title: Senior Associate

Department: Tax

Jurisdiction: Luxembourg

The Firm

The Ogier Luxembourg office offers tailor made legal advice to investment funds, private equity and financial institutions on cross-border transactions.

We advise investment funds, fund managers, corporate clients, institutional investors and non-Luxembourg law firms on all aspects of corporate, funds and finance matters. With our teams across Europe, Asia and the Caribbean, we specialise in international and cross-border matters.

We act for asset managers, banks, corporate and private equity institutional clients based primarily in London, Continental Europe, East Asia and North & South America. Our teams of internationally experienced lawyers provide specialised legal advice (including on a comparative multijurisdictional basis) through the full life-cycle of our clients' structures.

As the first provider of legal services to establish a significant presence in both Luxembourg and the leading international finance jurisdictions of BVI, Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey, Ogier is uniquely placed to provide fully integrated advice on both Luxembourg and offshore laws and investment structures/vehicles.

Purpose of the role

We are currently looking for a senior associate for our Tax department with an international mind-set, strong commitment and creativity. You would join Ogier, a leading international law firm with a global network of offices, 500 employees and 60 partners in 9 jurisdictions.

Key Responsibilities

- Advising clients on all matters relating to Luxembourg and international direct and indirect taxation, including transfer pricing;
- Being involved in a wide variety of M&A, alternative investment fund, and private equity/real estate operations;
- Coordinating multi-jurisdictional advice as to assist institutions and multinational organisations with their cross-border business operations;
- Initiating, building and maintaining effective client relationships, delivering excellent client service.
- Working closely with the partners and providing ongoing tax advisory support to senior lawyers/partners in advising domestic and international clients on diversified legal matters in the domain of regulatory principles, taxation & private investment structuring solutions.

Competencies

- You have completed a law degree, ideally complemented with an additional degree gained abroad (LL.M or Business School degree);
- You have gained a meaningful experience in Luxembourg and International Taxation;

Job Description (cont.)

- You have 5 to 7 years' post qualification experience ideally in a top tier law firm with international exposure;
- You are admitted to the Bar in Luxembourg or another EU jurisdiction, or have attended or are eligible to attend the CCDL;
- You are a team player and would like to be professionally active in an international environment, with the ability to work effectively and collaboratively in a team and sometimes under pressure;
- You are autonomous, dynamic, flexible, proactive, service-oriented and have excellent communication skills; and
- You have a perfect command of both written and spoken in French and English. Any other language would be an asset.

What we offer

- The opportunity to work on challenging, interesting and varied international projects for leading clients;
- A practical experience including direct contact with experienced lawyers and partners, creating opportunities for personal progression;
- A young, dynamic, growing and multicultural working environment;
- The possibility to develop a deep expertise and gain substantial exposure to various practice areas;
- Autonomous file management under the supervision of a partner; and
- A training programme to develop your legal, business and soft skills in close collaboration with our Jersey head office;
- A career progression and attractive benefits.

Contact

To apply for this role please send your CV to recruitment@ogier.com

Regulatory information can be found at ogier.com