Who we are

Our Dispute Resolution team is one of the largest in Ireland.

Ogier in Ireland is a full service commercial law firm, specialising in Real Estate, Dispute Resolution, Banking and Finance, Investment Funds, Tax, Employment and Corporate, working with multinational businesses and major bluechip companies.

Ogier's team of almost one hundred staff, led by highly experienced partners, continues to develop its offering in Ireland with a growth strategy that deepens the firm's established domestic capabilities and diversifies and extends its services to meet both international and domestic client demand. Ogier entered the Irish market following its merger with Dublin-based commercial law firm Lemnan Solicitors LLP in March 2022, resulting in a combined firm offering enhanced legal services to the Irish market.

Our Dispute Resolution team draws on significant expertise and experience to achieve our clients' objectives across a broad range of international and domestic commercial disputes, on time and on budget. We are recognised for successfully resolving large, complex and high-value disputes, and have litigated in all courts, including the High Court, Commercial Court, Court of Appeal, Supreme Court and the Court of Justice of the European Union.

We have particular expertise in fast-tracking complex commercial disputes through the Irish Commercial Court and delivering optimal outcomes for our clients.

We are experts in all forms of alternative dispute resolution, including domestic and international arbitration, mediation, adjudication and expert determination. Our team includes accredited mediators and experts in adjudication.

Our team's experience spans cross border, multi-million and multi-billion value disputes. With extensive cross-border and international experience, we work closely with counsel and other professional services providers in connection with foreign regimes.

We seek the best outcome for every client. Pre-empting formal proceedings and resolving disputes quickly, fairly and cost effectively is key to the efficient operation of a business. Maintaining strong client relationships is central to the excellent service we provide.

"Ogier's litigation team members are always a pleasure to deal with. They take a practical and wide-angled view of each case."
