

Supporting private equity downstream transactions

Ogier is a go-to firm for all aspects of the private equity life cycle, regularly working on innovative and complex downstream transactions.

Our award-winning Private Equity team is renowned for its depth of understanding and significant experience in fund establishment, investments and exits. From domestic mergers and acquisitions to complex, cross-border transactions, we combine outstanding local knowledge with a global perspective that is fully aligned with our international client base.

We have dedicated private equity lawyers across some of the leading global centres for private equity - BVI, Cayman Islands, Guernsey, Ireland, Jersey and Luxembourg. We are perfectly placed to provide regulatory and change of control analysis, and advice on sophisticated and time critical transactions.

Jersey
