

Ogier | ESG Align

Created by Ogier Global's Sustainable Investment Consulting team, ESG Align is an interactive tool that simplifies the complexities of environmental, social and governance (ESG) regulation and terminology, and creates an actionable plan for investment managers.

ESG Align draws upon our team's real-world market experience, regulatory expertise and ESG technical analysis, creating a one-of-a-kind solution.

Understanding Risk – CPD Certificate on Climate-related Financial Risk for Asset Managers

Understanding and navigating climate-related risks is a growing priority for boards and senior management teams across the financial industry. Ogier's CPD accredited course is an online training product designed to help asset managers get up to speed with climate-related financial risk.

Ogier | ESG Align

UNDERSTANDING
RISK

Who is it for?

- The course is primarily designed for professionals working in asset management
- It is also suitable for anyone working in investment management from legal to compliance, financial advice, product development, sales and distribution, as well as those with a general interest in sustainable finance

What is it?

- Flexible, online, pre-recorded training
- Access to real-life examples from across the industry
- 30 minute online assessment available to candidates once all course reading completed
- Award: certificate of completion
- Continuous professional development (CPD) accredited, Continuous professional training (CPT) potential
- Total duration: 2 hours

You will learn how to

- Define climate risk
- Recognise climate issues, trends and themes
- Understand why climate risk is financial risk
- Understand different approaches to integrate climate risk into investment strategies

To find out more, please contact our team at esg.align@ogier.com