

At a glance guide to Ogier's India Desk

Indian businesses, investors, family offices and entrepreneurs are increasingly operating across borders, navigating complex regulatory environments, raising international capital and expanding into new markets.

Ogier's India Desk brings together Cayman Islands and BVI legal, corporate and fiduciary expertise to support cross-border transactions, investment structures, disputes, restructuring and wealth planning matters.

We understand the unique dynamics of Indian capital flows, the requirements of India-focused investors and the realities of doing business across India, the UAE and beyond.

With market-leading specialists located across complementary time zones, including Dubai, London and Hong Kong, we get straight to what matters, when it matters most.

Who we work with

- Indian, UAE and international law firms
- Corporates and founder-led businesses

Ogier

Working seamlessly with your advisers

We regularly work alongside Indian, UAE and international law firms, tax advisers, wealth managers and private banks, providing specialist Cayman Islands and BVI expertise as part of wider cross-border mandates.

Supporting India's global connections

We advise clients across India, the GCC, the UK, the Caribbean, Europe and Asia, helping businesses, investors and families navigate international opportunities and multi-jurisdictional challenges.

Technical excellence

Our partners are Cayman and BVI qualified and are experienced in complex corporate, funds, disputes, restructuring and private wealth matters, advising on high-value and strategically important transactions.

Responsive, partner-led service

Our India Desk operates across time zones, ensuring rapid turnaround aligned with India and Gulf business hours.
