

At a glance guide to Ogier Global Trust and Agency services

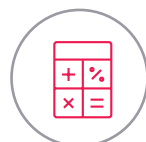

Ogier Global's Debt Capital Markets services deliver seamless, efficient trustee and agency services for lenders, investors and borrowers involved in a variety of structured finance arrangements, backed by international reach and local expertise.

5 things to know about Ogier Global's Trust and Agency services

Transactional coordination and facility agency

We coordinate drawdowns, repayments, payment allocations, amendments, waivers and consents. This ensures efficient communication and reporting between lenders and borrowers

Independent calculation and risk mitigation

We act as calculation agents, preparing cashflow inputs, stress testing and settlement instructions. Our agents provide independent governance, enhance transparency and reduce the risk of disputes and operational failures

Security trustee and collateral agent

We act as independent security agents and trustees, holding collateral, enforcing security rights and managing the realisation and distribution of proceeds. This oversight strengthens creditor protection in multi-investor and structured finance arrangements

Cash management and paying agency

Our specialists allocate funds, reconcile accounts, manage daily reporting, monitor liquidity and process payments. We ensure compliance with listing rules and corporate actions, supporting complex finance transactions

Regulatory compliance and governance

Providing scalable infrastructure and governance support, ensuring regulatory compliance, effective borrower communication and administration of waivers and consents
