

At a glance guide to Corporate Immigration

Given the increase of business into Ireland, particularly in the wake of Brexit the Employment Law team at Ogier in Ireland recognises the ever increasing need for advice on employment permit applications. Our team has extensive experience in advising multinational clients on obtaining employment permits to allow their preferred choice of candidate be able to work in Ireland.

| We advise on general guidance on the employment immigration process the most suitable employment permit the immigrant investor programme completing the relevant employment permit application trusted partner applications the applicability of the 14 business day rule drafting employment contracts or secondment agreement to form part of the employment permit application

Our team has extensive experience in advising multinational clients on obtaining employment permits to allow their preferred choice of candidate be able to work in Ireland.

| Our experience

The Employment and Corporate Immigration department of Ogier in Ireland has extensive experience in advising on employment immigration issues. We have advised a wide range of businesses from start to finish on the work permit application, where the objective was making the process as seamless as possible for the client.

| Our clients

Clients of the team include multinationals across the US, Canada and Asia ranging from employers in the technology and recruitment sectors as well as ICT and pharma companies.

| Key contacts

Bláthnaid Evans
Head of Employment and Corporate Immigration
Ireland
+353 1 632 3113

blathnaid.evans@ogier.com

Marianne Norton
Associate
Ireland
+353 1 669 7074

marianne.norton@ogier.com

Ogier is a professional services firm with the knowledge and expertise to handle the most demanding and complex transactions and provide expert, efficient and cost-effective services to all our clients. Regulatory information can be found at ogier.com