News - 16/02/2018

Ogier was proud to be named a Top Employer in the Cayman Islands this month.

Now in its 8th year, the Cayman Islands Society of Human Resources professionals (CISHRP) annual top Employers Award celebrates and recognises excellence among leading businesses in Cayman.

Competing against leading private, public and non-profit organisations in Cayman, Ogier was placed second in the large organization category – the only law firm ever to be placed.

Ogier HR Manager Emma Graham-Taylor said: "At the heart of the definition of Top Employer in these awards is a place where employees trust the people they work for, have pride in what they do and enjoy the people they work with and that is absolutely true of Ogier in Cayman and we are very proud of the recognition.

"As the awards were created by the Cayman Islands' community of HR professionals to promote best practice it was such a great moment to be able to demonstrate that we are really working hard in areas such as engagement, innovation and collaboration at Ogier. I am really proud of our employees, all of whom make Ogier one of the best places to work."
