Guernsey is part of the British Isles, lying some 24 miles off the coast of Normandy, France. Guernsey has its own legal system, sets its own corporate and income tax rates and is not part of the UK nor a member of the EU. Corporation tax is zero rated for funds and there are no capital, transfer, withholding or stamp taxes applicable to funds.

Funds, managers and administrators benefit from being regulated by a well-regarded and approachable regulator, the Guernsey Financial Services Commission, which has strong ties to the UK's regulators, banking supervisor and treasury.
